Dear Jim:

It is nice to hear from you, and I don't consider your letter a request for a favor. It is always helpful to us to have unsolicited comments on applicants. Consequently, I am bringing your letter to the attention of the people who process our applicants, and I am sure that it will bear considerable weight.

I have hardly been to New York at all, and then only for the shortest possible moment, as I strongly prefer this town. However, I shall try to give you a call if I do come up again.

Sincerely yours,

Lawrence R. Houston
General Counsel

NOTE

Mr. Conway's letter of April 10 contained a recommendation for [REDACTED] who is at present an applicant.
